Literary Tour of Jewish Galicia *

EXCLUSIVELY FOR YIVO

May 17 – May 25, 2018

WITH SCHOLARS:
Dr. Samuel Kassow & Dr. Eddy Portnoy

Day 1 Thursday May 17 Arrival in Rzeszów (D)

Upon arrival to Rzeszów airport, you are met and transferred to the hotel in the center of Rzeszów. Later this afternoon, enjoy a walking tour of the historic part of the town. Begin at the characteristic Market Square and Town Hall, before entering the former Jewish area, where two prominent synagogue buildings still stand as a reminder of the glorious past. The larger of the two synagogues (Duża) is now used as an art gallery, and the older and smaller (Stara) houses the city's archives. Welcome Dinner. Bristol Hotel.

Day 2 Friday May 18 Rzeszów – Zamość – Leżajsk – Łańcut – Rzeszów (B/L)

Breakfast at the hotel. Today, travel through traditional Galician homelands to the colorful town of Zamość, once home to a large Jewish community. Zamość is also the birthplace of I.L. Peretz, one of the major writers of Yiddish literature, whose tales of the Old World blend rationalism and mysticism, Haskalah and Hasidism. Peretz's goal, as he put it, was to express "Jewish ideals...grounded in Jewish tradition and Jewish history," and his work provides a vivid insight into late 19th century Yiddishkeit. Today, Zamość stands as a city proud of its history. Visit the restored Renaissance-style synagogue on Zamenhofa Street, flanked by the former Jewish Community House. Next, enjoy a special reading at the former Mikvah or in the Market Square, adorned by the Baroque Town Hall and ornate houses. After Lunch, continue to Leżajsk, site of the tomb of the great "Tzadik" (or perfectly righteous man) Elimelech, an inspirational force in the birth of Hasidism in the 18th century. Each year, Hasidim from all over the world assemble in honor of this great teacher. Continue to Łańcut and visit the small but well-preserved synagogue, which stands as one of the finest examples of Poland's traditional "four pillar" shuls. Cap the day with a visit to the gardens of the Łańcut Palace, one of the most beautiful aristocratic residences in Poland, before returning to Rzeszów in the late afternoon. Remainder of the day at leisure. Bristol Hotel.

Day 3 Saturday May 19 Rzeszów – Drohobycz – Yaremche (B/L/D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Early this morning, depart from Rzeszów, heading for Przemyśl and the border crossing point to Ukraine. Once across the border, continue to Drohobycz, formerly home to a vibrant Jewish community that represented about 40% of the local population. Here was the birthplace of one of our most celebrated writers, Bruno Schulz, best known for his two collections of short stories written in an inimitable magical realist style, that evoke Schulz's Jewish childhood in the Austrian Empire — "Cinnamon Shops" (English: "The Street of Crocodiles") and "Sanatorium Under the Sign of the Hourglass." Forced to work as an art slave for SS Officer Gustav Landau during the war, Schulz painted his famous last works — fairy-tale themed frescoes that were rediscovered in 2001. Schulz was killed in 1942, sharing the fate of thousands of Jewish souls from Drohobycz. See the Bruno Schulz House en route to the small Bruno Schulz Museum housed in "Bianca's Villa," where half of Schulz's frescoes still remain and are on display. Enjoy a selection of readings from Schulz's poetic prose work. Author and journalist Agata Tuszyńska is scheduled to join us here today. Next, visit the remains of the Choral Synagogue, which, despite many plans to restore the building, remains in hauntingly symbolic devastation. Before departing Drohobycz, pay respects at the Bronicki Forest, where thousands of Jews were martyred. After Lunch, continue to the mountainous area of Yaremche. Dinner. Romantic Spa Hotel.

Day 4 Sunday May 20 Yaremche (B/L)

Breakfast at the hotel. Today, the scholars-in-residence will provide an in-depth perspective on the fertile literary landscape that surrounds you. Afterwards, enjoy a special picnic Lunch. In the afternoon, feel free to rejuvenate at the spa or enjoy a walk in the lush forest-clad surroundings. Here is a place still known as a rural retreat - like Zakopane in Poland, or the Catskill Mountains in New York. For centuries, Yaremche's deep forest, fast-running rivers, and waterfalls have inspired artists and writers; Jewish families came here for a well-deserved vacation from the demands of daily life. Romantic Spa Hotel.

Day 5 May 21 Yaremche – Czernowitz (B/L/D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Depart Yaremche and follow the Prut River as it winds its way to Czernowitz. At various times, Czernowitz was part of Russia, Austria, the Bukovina province of Romania, and the Ukraine – its current designation. Its Jews are still proud to be referred to as “Bukovinian Jews,” since Jews during that period had a great impact on political, social, and artistic life, contributing to Czernowitz’s nickname of “Little Vienna.” Interestingly, the Jews of Czernowitz worked at a wide array of trades, including farming. Today, the town represents its past with numerous memorial plaques to Yiddish poets, as well as Yiddish inscriptions on the very stones of major boulevards. Visit the blue-domed, Moorish-revival Jewish synagogue (now used as a movie theatre, and nicknamed the “cinagogue”) and the Jewish cemetery. After Lunch, explore the Jewish National House and the Museum of Bukovinian Jewish History and Culture. Today’s Jewish life, though much reduced, is still present, as evidenced by the new synagogue (built in 2001), Hebrew School, Chesed Shoshana Charity, and even a Kosher restaurant. Afterwards, check-in at the hotel. Remainder of the day at leisure. Allure Inn.

Day 6 Tuesday May 22 Czernowitz – Vizhnitz – Czernowitz (B/L)

Breakfast at the hotel. Czernowitz was a gloriously intellectual city, site of the 1908 Czernowitz Conference — the first international conference in support of the Yiddish language, attended by leading writers including I.L. Peretz, Sholom Asch, and Avrom Reyzen, which declared Yiddish to be the “national language of the Jewish people.” Today will reflect the spirit of some of the great Jewish writers of this city and its surroundings. These include beloved Yiddish poet and songwriter Itzik Manger, German-language poets Paul Celan and Rose Auslander, and the young Selma Meerbaum Eisinger — who began writing in childhood and died in a labor camp at only eighteen. Next, depart for the small town of Vizhnitz. En route, pass former shtetls where writers like Alfred Margul-Sperber (friend to Celan and Auslander), and Moses Rosenkranz (author of the autobiographical Childhood) were born. Vizhnitz was also the birthplace of Hollywood director Otto Preminger, award-winning Yiddish author Josef Burg, and the Israeli novelist Aharon Appelfeld, who uses it for the model of his shtetl in the novel The Iron Tracks. Enjoy a picnic Lunch on the banks of the Cheremosh River in Vizhnitz. Now visit the illustrious cemetery, which stands as a beacon to the world; the Vishnitzer Rebbe, another legendary Tzaddik, is buried there. Both Jewish pilgrims and Ukrainian peasants visit his grave, bringing written requests for help; local tradition is that the “mystical” Tzaddik can grant any wish. In the afternoon, return to Czernowitz. Remainder of the day at leisure. Allure Inn.

Day 7 Wednesday May 23 Czernowitz – Buchach – Lvov (B/L/D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Today, leave Czernowitz and drive towards Lvov. En route, stop in Buchach, the birth place of our Nobel Prize-winning novelist Shmuel Yosef Agnon (Shai Agnon). Agnon wrote with equal facility about both the European past and the Israeli present; one of his most famous quotes is “Through a historical catastrophe - the destruction of Jerusalem by the emperor of Rome - I was born in one of the cities in the diaspora. But I always deemed myself a child of Jerusalem, one who is in reality a native of Jerusalem.” See the Agnon house in Buchach and enjoy Lunch, with time devoted to a reading of this giant of Modern Hebrew literature. Agnon’s stories are so elementally human that today, despondent elderly people in Israel may be offered “agnotherapy” — counseling based on the author’s characters and themes. Continue to Leopoldis, the Latin name for Lvov. Check-in at the hotel in the center of the Old Town. Dinner. Leopoldis Hotel.

Day 8 Thursday May 24 Lvov (B/L/D)

Breakfast at the hotel. Embark on a walking tour of Lvov. Its rich multicultural flavor and history is reflected in the multiplicity of names the city has held, from Leopoldis, to Lemberg (Yiddish), Lwow (Polish) and today’s commonly used Lviv. Author Isaac Babel, often misconceived as merely Russian, is associated with this city. His book of stories, Red Cavalry, deals with the Polish-Soviet war (1920), which Babel, just beginning to write, was advised by Gorky to join as a correspondent and propagandist. These stories relate the brutality and anti-Semitism which both the Red and White armies exhibited. Next, visit the former Jewish Quarter and see the remains of the Golden Rose synagogue and the former Jewish hospital, gymnasium, and yeshiva. At various places, Jewish murals have been uncovered underneath coats of paint. Continue to the Jakub Glanzer Synagogue and the still-functioning Beis Aharon Synagogue, where you will meet with members of the Jewish community. After Lunch, pay respects at the Holocaust memorial before returning to the hotel. Remainder of the afternoon at leisure, with time to browse the lively streets of Lvov. In the evening, enjoy a Farewell Dinner. Leopoldis Hotel.

Day 9 Friday 25 Lvov – Home flights (B)

Breakfast at the hotel. Transfer to the airport and check-in for the return flight.
